All Rivers Flow Into the Jordan

By Zekharya Chesno

Contento Now, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .To what shall I compare a human life? Perhaps the most suitable comparison is that of a river. A river starts from a tiny brook and as it flows it gathers strength and then calmly carries its waters, then begins to seethe and boil when it comes across some rapids or another obstacle. And so it goes until finally its waters disappear into the sea. Since our early school years, we had known which sea a certain river falls into. Let us remember: The Neman falls into the Baltic Sea. Similarly, our lives also seemed to go in a simple, absolute order. But as time passed, it became more and more evident that life is unpredictable and often asks such questions which are hard and sometimes even impossible to answer. Yes, I know very well where the rivers that flowed through my life finally terminated: the Spree-into the Oder, the Viliya-into the Neman, the Kama-into the Volga, the Cheptsa-into the Viatka. But besides physical geography my memory holds quite different geography. For me, a boy brought up...
