Webzine is celebrating four years as purveyors of the finest schlock horror, fantasy and science fiction. We begin with a story of a private investigator and his voyage to the bottom of the sea from first ever Schlock contributor James Rhodes, author of The Hettford Witch Hunt series and short story This Is What s Happening, followed by a post-apocalyptic superhero tale from Gary Murphy. Next we have a new horror tale from Gregory KH Bryant, whose B-Movie horror epic Terror on Snail Island reaches Part Eleven elsewhere in the zine, followed by Death Comes in Kaleidoscope from Benjamin Welton. We also see a horrific return from Rick McQuiston, while I ve included the first story I wrote, back when I was fifteen and being thirty four was far ahead, not behind me (previously featured in issue 3). We also begin a new serial, The Jewel of the Seven Stars by Bram Stoker, adapted by Hammer Horror in the seventies as Blood from the Mummy s Tomb. And in chapter two of A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur s Court, our hero encounters a page.
